Why should you buy a portable power station?

Bring big backup power with you with these expert-recommended portable power stations, which can store enough power to charge electronics, appliances, and more.

Do portable power stations make camping better?

A good portable power station makes camping better. These devices power lights, phones, and small appliances when you're outdoors. We spent three months testing power stations to find the best portable power stations for camping. We tested 30 portable power stations over 12 camping trips.

What is the best portable power station?

With a great power-to-weight ratio, the latest version of the Bluetti Elite 200 V2 is a great portable power station for powering a camper or providing backup power for the essentials. With its tremendous capacity, the EcoFlow Delta Pro 3 is truly capable of providing a whole-home backup without gas or solar panels.

What is the best portable power station for water resistance?

Best portable power station for water resistance It might not be a true rugged power station, but the Bluetti AC240P boasts IP65 rating to protect it against water and dust ingress. Key specs are 1843Wh capacity and a 2400W output.

How much power does a portable power station need?

For portable power stations, capacity is measured in watt-hours (Wh), telling you how much energy the unit stores. Weekend adventures typically need 200-300Wh for smartphone charging and LED lighting. Glamping and campground camping with amenities require 500-700Wh units to power fans, portable coolers, and CPAP machines.

Which power station should I buy?

If what you want is to store the most juice possible in a single power station, this is your best bet. The Anker SOLIX C300 is a reliable power station for your small electronics. 300W of output will charge your phones and laptop with ease, and 288Wh should keep you going all weekend.

But for people who want a more permanent--and higher-quality--outdoor audio setup for a backyard or patio, we suggest a good set of weather-resistant outdoor speakers.
